

Rap Sheet
November 2003

"This is music you can listen to over and over and never get tired of." — Russ Dixon, Colors

"Jared uses his unique brand of solo piano to relax and refresh an audience that is growing larger and larger." — Jon Schmidt, solo pianist

"Jared's artfully crafted melodies on Piano Pop are performed with energy and enthusiasm to create memorable and beautiful music." — David Tolk, North Star recording artist

"Piano Pop is a high-energy piano album that takes you places. Jared Johnson's compositions are moving and fun to listen to." — Michael R. Hicks, solo pianist and three-time Pearl Award nominee

"As a listener, I can really tell that Jared has invested a lot of emotion into his music." — Brian Tibbets, Colors

"Jared Johnson is a talented musician and innovative writer. Piano Pop showcases his profound abilities." — McKane Davis, 259

"It is hard to put into words the performance Jared gave. I believe the words 'fresh' and 'intriguing' would be good ones to start with. It is easy to see that he plays what comes from his heart." — Ryan Merrill, Colors

"Musicality shines through...rhythmically, I can tell he's a drummer!" — Tyler Castleton, Deseret Book A & R Director